Fiduciary Duties as ABPD Board of Directors Member:

Under applicable law, ABPD directors are fiduciaries and must act in accordance with their duties of care, loyalty, and obedience to ABPD.

ABPD directors meet their duty of care by exercising their responsibilities in good faith and with the diligence, attention, care, and skill that a person in a like position would reasonably believe appropriate under the circumstances. This includes both decision-making and oversight responsibilities and is fulfilled by such things as attending meetings regularly, participating in discussions, reading minutes, understanding the organization’s operations and programs, maintaining oversight of finances, and questioning unclear or troubling activity.

ABPD directors meet their duty of loyalty by placing the interests of the organization before their private interests, including scrutinizing transactions in which they have a personal financial interest and avoiding the use of organizational opportunities for personal gain.

ABPD directors meet their duty of obedience by carrying out the purposes and mission of the organization, complying with laws and regulations applicable to the organization, and complying with the organization’s articles of incorporation, bylaws, and other governing documents.

Key Responsibilities as ABPD Board of Directors Member:
