Re-Examination Policy

An applicant or registrant who fails the QE or OCE may retake the examination annually during their eligibility period. All examination scores will be forfeited if board certification is not achieved during the eligibility period.